Keynote Speaker

JOHN G. IANNARELLI FBI Special Agent Executive (Ret.)

John G. Iannarelli retired from the FBI after more than 20 years of service, during which time he was the FBI's National Spokesperson, on the FBI Cyber Division executive staff, an FBI SWAT team member, and the Assistant Special Agent in Charge of the FBI's Phoenix Division. In Phoenix, John oversaw all Criminal, Cyber, and Counter Intelligence Investigations throughout Arizona. John has participated in many extensive investigations, including:

- The Oklahoma City Bombing
- The 9/11 attack
- Congresswoman Gabrielle Giffords' shooting

He is the recipient of the FBI Director's Distinguished Service Award, as well as an Honorary Doctorate of Computer Science in recognition of his contributions to the field of cyber investigations.

A former San Diego Police Officer and a graduate of the University of San Diego School of Law, to include international studies at Oxford, England, John is an attorney admitted to the practice of law in California, Maryland and the District of Columbia.

John is the author of four books, to include How to Spot A Terrorist Before It's Too Late, written to help every-day persons recognize and prevent terrorism before it can occur.

John is a highly sought after keynote speaker who has presented to the United Nations, Fortune 500 companies throughout the world, and even the Vatican where he met personally with Pope Francis. John also coaches CEOs and C-suite executives on corporate and cyber security matters, corporate espionage, crisis management and leadership. John also offers training and executive coaching on how to maximize results through communications with clients, employees and the media.
